

SUMMARY SHEET

I. DESCRIPTION OF ITEM:

Shelby County is one of twenty national sites selected to participate in the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation's Safety and Justice Challenge. The Safety and Justice Challenge is part of the MacArthur Foundation's criminal justice reform initiative to reduce over-incarceration by changing the way America thinks about and uses jails. The 2015 planning application resulted in Shelby County receiving an award of $150,000.00 to apply towards the developed strategies.

These are funds that were not fully spent during the planning phase, but which the grantor has approved be continued and put towards implementation as the planning phase concluded in January 2016.
